DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The Brick Hill Tenant House is a two-story frame structure four bays long by two deep with a two-story rear wing. This building has two front doors. The house has a single interior brick chimney and a stone foundation. The roof has a low pitch covered with corrugated metal with a simple box cornice. Across the facade is a two-bay entrance porch which appears to be 20th century. The window sash is 6/6 throughout. The exterior is covered with red shingles.

At an earlier date a toll house stood on the same ground as the present structure.
